

FJALLABRÆÐUR (MOUNTAIN BROTHERS) AND MAYBE I SHOULD HAVE

It has probably not escaped anyone's attention (in Iceland) that the western men's Choir „Fjallabræður“ is melting the hearts of the people. „Freyja“ a song written by Magnus Thor Sigmundsson and performed by the incredibly handsome Fjallabræður and Magnus has been played extensively on the radio.

We went with the choir, their band and Magnus Þór to Thingvellir and recorded a video to the song „Freyja“. It was a large production but the weather was beautiful , the guys in the choir loved it and the outcome is a great video to a great song.

The video will be premiered in the film and we promise you goosbumps.
